Lemon Tree Hotel, Kasauli

Introduction

Nestled amidst the majestic Himalayas, Kasauli is a picturesque hill station that has been popular with tourists for its serene charm and natural beauty. Perched at an elevation of around 1,900 meters above sea level, this quaint town in Himachal Pradesh offers a tranquil escape from the hustle and bustle of city life. Tourists flock to Kasauli for its breathtaking panoramic views of lush green landscapes, dense forests, and the snow-capped Himalayan peaks creating a mesmerising backdrop. The town's colonial architecture, exemplified by structures like Christ Church and the Baptist Church, adds a touch of old-world charm to the surroundings.

Kasauli, a Cantonment Board City, is not just a haven for nature lovers; it also boasts a rich heritage and cultural tapestry. The town's historic trails, including the Upper and Lower Mall Roads, showcase colonial-era architecture and provide a glimpse into its British legacy. The friendly and welcoming locals, with their warm hospitality, further enhance the overall experience for visitors. The cultural ethos of Kasauli is deeply rooted in its traditional festivals, music, and local cuisine, offering tourists a chance to immerse themselves in the vibrant heritage of the region. The best time to visit Kasauli is March to June and September to November when the weather is pleasant, and the town is adorned with blooming flowers and clear skies, creating an ideal setting for exploration and rejuvenation.

Lemon Tree Hotel, Kasauli nestled in the lap of Himalaya features contemporary interiors, seamless service and a whiff of the signature lemon fragrance. The hotel offers 28 rooms and suites and Citrus Café – a multi-cuisine coffee shop and a hip-recreation bar – Slounge. The hotel also offers a rejuvenating spa – Fresco to keep you feeling as-fresh-as-a-lemon.

Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including:

Christ Church:

Visit the iconic Christ Church on The Mall Road, Kasauli, a splendid example of neo-Gothic architecture built in 1853. Admire the intricate stained glass windows and bask in the tranquil ambience, making it a serene spot for reflection and photography.

Monkey Point:

Head to Monkey Point, the highest vantage in Kasauli, for breathtaking views of the Sutlej River and surrounding mountains. Though the Hanuman Temple is the highlight, the climb up also rewards you with a panoramic spectacle of nature besides offering spiritual vibes.

Gilbert Trail:

Embark on the enchanting Gilbert Trail, starting from Lover's Lane, Kasauli. This nature walk offers a peaceful escape amidst tall pine trees and lush greenery, providing an ideal setting for rejuvenating strolls and connecting with the pristine beauty of the region.

Sunset Point:

As evening approaches, make your way to Sunset Point near the Lower Mall area. Soak in the awe-inspiring sunset hues painting the sky over the hills, creating a magical atmosphere that makes it a favourite spot for locals and tourists alike.

Mall Road:

Explore the charming Mall Road at the heart of Kasauli, lined with local shops, cafes, and restaurants. Take a stroll, shop for local handicrafts, and savour delicious Himachali cuisine, immersing yourself in the laid-back hill station ambience.

Kasauli Brewery:

Delve into history at the Kasauli Brewery on The Mall Road, one of the oldest distilleries in Asia. Take a guided tour to learn about the brewing process, sample their renowned products, and appreciate the heritage of this establishment dating back to the 1820s.

Gurkha Fort:

Explore the historic Gurkha Fort near Kasauli, a testament to the region's colonial past. Wander through the remnants, soaking in the historical significance and enjoying panoramic views of the picturesque surroundings.
