Lemon Tree Hotel, Centre Point, Jamshedpur

Introduction

The hotel is located in the heart of Jamshedpur which is a vibrant financial and business district. The city, founded by Jamsetji Nusserwanji Tata on March 3, 1839, is home to the conglomerate's two major arms – Tata Steel and Tata Motors. It is Jharkhand's largest city also known as Tatanagar. Jamshedpur's private clubs offer activities like golf, tennis, squash, billiards, horse riding and water scooting. Jamshedpur Football Club is an Indian Super League professional football club, based in Jamshedpur, owned by Tata Steel. The city is well-connected to other parts of India through national and state highways.

This property will feature 42 well-appointed rooms, a pan-Asian speciality restaurant, a hip recreation bar along with a banquet hall and a board room besides a fitness center along with other public areas.

The Sonari Airport has flights to Bhubaneswar and Kolkata and the Birsa Munda Airport, Ranchi, about 126 kms, connects it to the rest of the country. The Tatanagar Railway Station is 6 kms from the hotel. Jamshedpur is well-road connected by road to the major cities.

Located in the East Singhbhum district, this warm and friendly hotel welcomes guests with its fresh, vibrant interiors, fun, quirky elements and spirited environment. Warm greetings, friendly smiles and service that goes the extra mile go hand in hand with the bright, comfortable rooms, exciting range of dining and recreational facilities, close-to-home comfort and a whiff of the signature lemon fragrance.

The fresh property features 42 well-appointed rooms, complemented by Slounge – a hip recreation bar and Republic of Noodles – the award-winning Pan-Asian restaurant. It also features a boardroom and a Tangerine banquet that can host small events & get-togethers while the fitness center ensures that you do not miss your fitness goals.

Local Sightseeing

- Jubilee Park: Spread over 200-acres it's one of the five largest urban parks in India. It is a popular destination for picnics, outdoor activities, and games. It's also known as the Mughal Garden of Jamshedpur. The park was inaugurated in 1958 by then Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru to mark the Golden Jubilee of the steel company.
- Russi Modi Centre of Excellence: Dedicated to Rustomji Homusji Mody, popularly known as Russi Mody, it is a museum that showcases the growth of India's first steel plant established by the Tata Group. It contains the history of the development of Tatanagar and the first steel plant of India. The photographs related to the construction and inauguration of the steel plant, original handwritten documents by Rustomji Mody and information related to the Tata Group and its achievements and some rare photographs of the Tata family can be seen here.
- JRD Tata Sports Complex: Also known as The Furnace, it is the largest stadium in Jamshedpur and has a capacity to hold 40,000 spectators. Currently used mostly for association football matches and athletics competitions, but it has facilities for other sports including archery, basketball, field hockey, handball, swimming, table tennis, tennis, volleyball and more. It has been the home stadium of Jamshedpur FC since the 2017–18 season. On the another side is the Keenan, a multi-formats cricket stadium currently used for domestic cricket matches.
- Sir Dorabji Tata Park: Built by Tata Steel and dedicated to Russi Modi the park was earlier called Modi Park. Later it was named after Sir Dorabji Tata, son of Jamshedji Tata and a massive statue of Sir Dorabji Tata was installed in the park.
- Dalma Wildlife Sanctuary: The wildlife sanctuary is 10 kms from Jamshedpur. Inaugurated in 1975 it contains a significant population of the Indian elephant. Situated around the Dalma Hills, it is spread over 195 sq km.
- Dimna Lake: An artificial reservoir near Dalma Wildlife Sanctuary it was constructed in 1944 by Tata Steel to deal with the water scarcity in the city. The lake is a popular picnic spot with its clear water and scenic surroundings, and has several mini treks into the surrounding hills, and water activities such as boating, rowing, and jet skiing among many others.
