Local Sightseeing

The property can organise visits to many tourist destinations, including.

- City Palace: The City Palace, on the shores of Lake Pichola, offers stunning views of the lake and surrounding hills. It's a beautiful blend of Rajasthani and Mughal architectural styles. It houses several museums that display a rich collection of antiquities including royal clothing, accessories, weapons, and paintings. The museums provide a glimpse into the history and lifestyle of the Mewar rulers.
- Jagmandir Palace: Jag Mandir is a beautiful island palace on Lake Pichola. Also known as the Lake Garden Palace, it is one of the prominent tourist attractions in Udaipur. The palace was built in the 17th century and is known for its impressive architecture. Its different sections -- Gul Mahal, a courtyard, a garden, and the main Jag Mandir -- add to the charm of the entire complex.
- Lake Pichola: Lake Pichola is one of the most picturesque and prominent lakes in Udaipur. This artificial freshwater lake was created in 1362 AD and is named after the nearby Picholi village.
- Crystal Gallery: The Crystal Gallery is known for housing one of the largest private collections of crystal in the world. It is located within the Fateh Prakash Palace, which is a part of the City Palace complex. The gallery features a vast collection of crystal items, including furniture, crockery, jewellery, and more.
- Saheliyon Ki Bari: Saheliyon ki Bari is a popular tourist destination and the name translates to "Garden of the Maidens" in English. It is located on the banks of Fateh Sagar Lake in Udaipur, near the foothills of the Moti Magri (Pearl Hill). The garden was designed as a serene retreat for the queen and her female companions.
- Bagore Ki Haveli: Bagore Ki Haveli is a historic haveli (mansion) located by the waterfront of Lake Pichola in the vicinity of Gangaur Ghat. Known for a gallery that showcases a vibrant collection of traditional Rajasthani puppets, it often holds puppet shows to entertain visitors.
- Jagdish Temple: Jagdish Temple is a large and architecturally significant Hindu temple situated near the City Palace. It stands on a raised platform and is easily accessible from various parts of the city.
- Sajjangarh Biological Park: It's also known as the Monsoon Palace and is a famous historic site in Udaipur. The palace was built in the late 19th century on a hill to observe the monsoon clouds and offers panoramic views of the surrounding landscape.
